

Foma

The Nixons

Lies

Light ahead, is it something that I can cling to?

Is it something to help this life sustain?

See no pain

Is it just another train?

Life ahead, is it something that I can count on?

Is it something to keep the spirit raised?

Seize my days

Is it just another phase?

Innocence left us long ago, lines are blurred on

Everything that I've been told

Foma, foma, foma

Jesus Christ, is He someone you put faith in?

Is He someone to wear your crown of thorns?

Bear your wrongs

Is He just another God?

Sincerity left us long ago

Stay in line and do exactly what you're told

Foma, foma, foma

Lies, see through your lies

See the sign, is it something you would bleed for?

Is it something that helps

To feed your soul with a sense of hope?

Just stay in line and do exactly what you're told

Foma, foma, foma

Lies, see your lies
