Foma

Lies Light ahead, is it something that I can cling to? Is it something to help this life sustain? See no pain Is it just another train? Life ahead, is it something that I can count on? Is it something to keep the spirit raised? Seize my days Is it just another phase? Innocence left us long ago, lines are blurred on Everything that I've been told Foma, foma, foma Jesus Christ, is He someone you put faith in? Is He someone to wear your crown of thorns? Bear your wrongs Is He just another God? Sincerity left us long ago Stay in line and do exactly what you're told Foma, foma, foma Lies, see through your lies See the sign, is it something you would bleed for? Is it something that helps To feed your soul with a sense of hope? Just stay in line and do exactly what you're told Foma, foma, foma Lies, see your lies
