

Sleep

The Notwist

I was late for the wrong reasons
All borders and no light
God is a nothing phantom
And a pocket light

'Cause it's late for the one reason
The sun was up all night
And I put my arms around you
To hold you tight

On and on and on and on
Someone has sleep for me
Or is it all just letters and poems

On and on and on and on and on
Someone has to sleep for me
Or is it all just letters and poems

Keeping the night for the wrong reason
These borders hold no light
'Cause God is a nothing phantom
And a pocket light

'Cause I stayed for the wrong reason
The sun was up all night
And I put your arms around you
But to hold you tight

On and on and on and on
Someone has sleep for me
Or is it all just letters and poems

On and on and on and on
Someone has to sleep for me
Or is it all just letters and poems

On and on and on and on
Someone has sleep for me
Or is it all just letters and poems

On and on and on and on and on
Someone has too much sleep for me
Or is it all just letters and poems
