

Unsaid, Undone

The Notwist

One day you sit and want
And watching all the things
That are in your sleep

And now you recognize
That all good things
Can get you deep

You're alone
With all that stone
At the ways
Unsaid, undone
The nut crack this
Unsaid, undone
The nut crack this song

Now there you sit and want
And watching all the things
That are in your sleep

And now you recognize
That all good things
Can get you deep

Unsaid, undone
The nut crack this song
Unsaid, undone
The nut crack this song

You're alone
With all that stone
At the ways
Unsaid, undone
The nut crack this
Unsaid, undone
The nut crack this song
