

Cloudy Days

The Ocean Blue

You're so special You're so fine
You're good looking You're so divine
and it seems like a breath of a moment
and it seems like a wisp of a tow
We'd do much better Without my mind
Does so much wandering Kills so much time
and it seems like a breath of a moment
and it seems like a wisp of a tow
Is all I get
When I'm in your gaze Brief sunshine
in my cloudy days
I like the rain
I love the snow
it's just the pain
Of those cloudy days
