Out Here

The Ocean Blue

Hey I'm calling Hey I'm out here You're so wrapped up you can't tear your eyes away Hey I'm slipping Hey I'm falling Its just a matter of time til I fade away Such a beast of a day below So pretty and stale Such a radical view you're searching for Hey I'm watching Hey I'm listening If you speak up you might blow my heart away Hey I'm drifting Hey I'm drowning Its just a matter of time til I drop away So collected and calm in your cocoon So pretty and high don't flatter yourself your just a pawn
