

Regarding Kate

The Old Dead Tree

Kate is sad
She feels like she's losing interest
In love
She's disappointed
By life

Oh sweet star
Please shine
Shine for her in the dark
You know sometimes it can help
To sleep

Oh all, all of her life she's been waiting
For the great love, the perfect wedding

Kate thinks that the sky
Will soon, will soon turn to grey
The clouds are so dark today
She says:

"Oh sweet star
Please shine
Shine for me in the dark
You know sometimes it can help
To sleep"

Oh all, all of her life she's been waiting
For the great love, the perfect wedding

All for one and none for her
She prepares herself to live alone
Driven by despair
She sleeps
And slips deeper

So cold is her bed at night
No shelter for her during the storm
She'd like to vanish out of sight
To sleep
Sleeping she slips down

She doesn't want to show
Her soul in the raw

She lives her life her own way
She needs to enjoy each day
"Don't worry" she says

She's really fine
Smiling and laughing all the time
She says she's fine
But she knows she's wrong

She lives her life her own way
But cries over her life
She needs to enjoy each day
With fake smiles on her face

Why should life be so heavy
She cannot stand this idea
But Kate is so sad
