

here we go around the world we spin around on the turnstiles we create

here we are in caravan blindness up high were the dreamers and don't forget you're the only one (you're the only one) you hold your kite on a string

don't sleep too long cause everything you need is right here
don't sleep too long
pleasant dreams but please don't sleep too long everything you need is right here
don't sleep too long

here we are in candyland one million dreams are realizing everyday here we are in apples corps four million feet walk right by me everyday here we are in old New York ten million eyes stare right through me and don't forget you're not the only one (not the only one) who turned your life all around?
