

Watch You Drown

The Only Ones

You're alone tonight once again
For once in your lonely life you had a friend
Oh, you're alone tonight, had to end

But you think I will come back, baby
Whenever you want me to
You know that something that I'm not used to Come back baby
We can start all over again

You ought to be careful now you're out at sea
There's so many smooth talkers around not as fine as me
I'll be there to watch you drown finally

You know they're gonna love you and leave you
Such a stupid contradiction
What makes you happy, but then your whole life's fiction
Come back baby
We could start all over again

I remember this girl a long time ago, just another face
I look for some sign of concern, not a trace
Then she invited me back to her place

She thinks I'm gonna come back and love her
And need her and forget completely
Come back baby
Doesn't fate run sweetly
Destroy each other
And then we could start all over again
