

A Sudden Death

The Organ

Day after day, they go
They go to gain just a little more control
And when they took yours away
I couldn't sleep at all
I lay in bed for days

I died a sudden death
I made an awful mess
I didn't stand a chance
I didn't stand a chance

'Cause when we where our best
I could care less if people bred themselves
To death
Oh, but now that you are gone
I just know that everything is wrong

Don't leave me alone now...
