

Ain't So Bad

The Outlaws

Takin' a lot of givin' and makin' life worth livin', at a slow pace, love made it a long race, well, I can't really say things are going my way, but the love is so pleasin', ah, the love is the reason that I've waited so long for my sun to shine,
shine, shine, shine,
well, I've waited so long tryin' to put it in song, whether rise or fall, livin' ain't quite so bad after all.

Livin' and dyin' without even tryin', well, with some, you might find a satisfied mind, well, there's right ways and wrong ways, and lots of them long days that makes life worth livin' when the best that you're givin' tries to open your eyes so your sun can shine,
shine, shine, shine,
well, I've waited so long tryin' to put it in song, whether rise or fall, livin' ain't so bad...

as I wandered through the darkness, I knew, though I wondered what I was gonna do when the Sun started shinin', then there'd be no denyin' that I'd have such a love of a new day, givin' some, and takin' some, too, now my sun shines high on every bluesy day, and I know what I was going through.

Well, the love is so pleasin', all the love is the reason
that I've waited so long for my sun to shine,
shine, shine, shine,
and that's right,
and well, I've waited so long tryin' to put it in song, whether rise or fall, livin' ain't so bad after all.
