

Lover Boy

The Outlaws

Thinkin' about today, worryin' about tomorrow, nothin' ever stays the same, blame your madness on sorrow, but be a happy man.

Take your time, don't you hurry, life is the love that you give,
live in the shadow of loneliness, oceans of tears and a sky full of fears, oh, no, no, no.

Love her, boy, lover boy,
ride her on wings of love,
love her, boy, lover boy,
tell her what you're thinking of.

All your life you were lonely, you were hiding all your loneliness in your dreams.
Never takin' chances, runnin' from romances,
and lookin' for one who dances only with you.

She will never lie,
she will never lie.

You will never cry,
you will never cry.

Sure as the mornin' sun is comin', no more runnin', knowin' that love is real.
Sing her a song that will last forever, give her your heart, let her love you, you know she's thinkin' of you, don't be a fool.

You can have it all,
you can have it all.

She won't let you fall,
she won't let you fall.

All you got to do is love her, boy...

You can have it all,
you can have it all,
you can have it all.

She won't let you fall,
she won't let you fall,
she won't let you fall.

All you got to do is
love her, boy, lover boy,
ride her on wings of love,
love her, boy, lover boy,

tell her what you're thinking of.

Love her, boy, lover boy,
ride her on wings of love,
love her, boy, lover boy,
tell her what you're thinking of.
