

Everywhere She Goes

The Ozark Mountain Daredevils

There's a light that no one sees
But it's as bright as the sun to me
Everywhere she, everywhere she goes
There's a song that no one hears
But to me, it sounds so clear
Everywhere she, everywhere she goes

Everywhere she goes, she takes my heart and soul
Everywhere she goes, she let's me feel what
Only heaven knows

Never mind what wise men say
I will follow anyway
Everywhere she, everywhere she goes
Every time I hear her call
I stop and start to fall
Everywhere she, everywhere she goes

Everywhere she goes, she takes my heart and soul
Everywhere she goes, she let's me feel what
Only heaven knows

Everywhere she goes
Everywhere she goes

There's a dream no one believes
But it's right as rain to me
Everywhere she, everywhere she goes

Everywhere she goes, she takes my heart and soul
Everywhere she goes, she let's me feel what
Only heaven knows
Everywhere she goes, she takes my heart and soul
Everywhere she goes, she let's me feel what
Only heaven knows

Everywhere she goes
Everywhere she goes
