Homemade Wine

The Ozark Mountain Daredevils

Down in the hills of the Ozarks
There are some women that'll have your heart
All wrapped up in chains it's a shame

If you make the bad mistake of telling them All the crazy things you tell them When you're high on that homemade wine

'Cause when you're high on that homemade wine Every woman will sure look fine

Half standin' in my sleep
I'm lookin' at my feet
And wonderin' where do I go from here

I've been walkin' for an hour Tryin' to find my shower So my head can't be on right yet

It's that wine and I'll take all bets
It's that wine that's gettin' to my head

Made me a fifty gallon barrel Connected with an air hose And I had me a real good rig

Went on a binge for one week Got to where I couldn't speak To anyone oh, I was high

It's that wine and I'll tell no lies
Take that wine if you want to get higher, higher

It's that wine and I'll tell no lies
Taste that wine if you want to get high
