

It Couldn't Be Better

The Ozark Mountain Daredevils

Now a tear
Leaves you only a trace
And the sun
Finds its way to your face

It couldn't be better,
It couldn't be better, Lord
Than it is right now

And the one
That you gave all your charms
Finds his way
To the depth of your arms

It couldn't be better,
It couldn't be better, Lord
Than it is right now

It couldn't be better,
Than it is right now

Than it is right now
