

Blow

The Paddingtons

You know I talk about it
But you don't need to shout
I never said your name
Or what you're thinking about
You learn to take it back
Yeah, once your money's spent
We'll run away from here
Well once we've payed all the rent
Yeah where did all your blow go?
You've got your money's worth
Yeah where did all your blow go?
You've got your money's worth

It's coming down around me
Believe I'm tuning in
And if I said what you're thinking
Nothing there was a sin
We'll stick around for a little while
To get your money's worth
I wrote this song it's a secret
So now we tell all the world

Yeah where did all your blow go?
You've got your money's worth
Yeah where did all your blow go?
It went up your nose

Yeah where did all your blow go?
You've got your money's worth
Yeah where did all your blow go?
It went up your nose

Yeah where did all your blow go?
You've got your money's worth
Yeah where did all your blow go?
It went up your nose
