

Back To The Start

The Paramedic

So this is how it ends
With our love on hold
You've left me out here all alone
I swear this could never be foretold
You spoke with words so sharp
And I let my love shine
But now I'm left to face the fear
That you will never again be mine

Where do we go from here?
I just don't know
Where did you go, my dear?
Where did you go?

You didn't shed a tear
What where you scheming?
This was my biggest fear
I must be dreaming

Those three word lies led to my demise
You didn't have to say a word
Girl, I could see it in your eyes

Bring me back to the start
Back when "baby I love you" was all we could say
Bring me back to your heart
We said we'd never ever let it end this way

No one can ever describe the feeling
The moment you realized you've lost everything you had left

Trust!

Baby, girl
Baby, fucking, girl
My diamond, my pearl
You know you were my world
My dearest love
Just look what you have done
My only solace now lies in the barrel of this gun

To my surprise I watch you cut all ties
You didn't have to say a word
Girl, I could see it in your eyes

Bring me back to the start
Back when "baby I love you" was all we could say
Bring me back to your heart
We said we'd never ever let it end this way

Don't act like this didn't mean a thing
Don't tell them that I was just a fling
Don't throw away the memories we shared
Don't lie to me and say you didn't care

Oh, baby girl

Bring me back to the start
Back when "baby I love you" was all we could say
Bring me back to your heart
We said we'd never ever let it end this way
