The Paramedic

I wish I was
As naive in love
As you are
In love as you are
Well I refuse
To be someone's settling

Well I refuse
To be someone's settling
Well I refuse
To be someone's settling

This has to be
More than a chain reaction of chemicals
I'm cursed by cupid
We're naive in love

Well I refuse
To be someone's settling
Well I refuse
To be someone's settling

I've watched your baggage
Float upon the shore
And i've had it
Make me never want to see the sea

I've watched your baggage
Float upon the shore
And i've had it
Make me never want to see the sea again
Again
(again)
Again
(again)
Again
(never)
Again
(never)
When this is over

Well I refuse
To be someone's settling
Well I refuse
To be someone's settling
