

No Place To Hide

The Parlotones

This could be the biggest mistake you'll ever make my only wish is that we'll all be free but they insist that fate will dictate

There's no place to hide
you might as well take a bite out of life
There's no place to hide
There's no place to hide

This could be the shortest love affair that you'll never save and don't ask me where are your riches not in the bank but in the people that I love and who love me

There's no place to hide
you might as well take a bite out of life
There's no place to hide
There's no place to hide

We're so alike. We're so alike.
We're so alike.
You and I.

There's no place to hide
you might as well take a bite out of life
you might as well
you might as well

There's no place to hide
We're so alike.
