

Stardust Galaxies

The Parlotones

A shooting star explodes in deep
Space
I feel the truth in your warmest
Embrace
This desire you can never erase
I hope that we never change
On an insignificant planet of a
Humdrum star
I found significance in the shape of
Your heart
Let's journey to mars in this elevator
Car
I hope that we never change
Stardust Galaxies stretch out for
Eternity
Stardust Galaxies
Travelled to the edge of our galaxy
I was searching for something that
Was right next to me
As I see you lying there, my real life
Fantasy
I hope that we never change
Stardust Galaxies stretch out for
Eternity
Stardust Galaxies
A shooting star explodes in deep
Space
I find comfort in your innocent face
As My fingertips trace your succulent
Taste
I hope that we never change
Stardust Galaxies stretch out for
Eternity
Stardust Galaxies
On an insignificant planet of a
Humdrum star
Your atoms drew me in right from
The start
The meaning to life is the pursuit of
The heart
I hope that we never change
