

Sun Comes Out

The Parlotones

This is more than I can take I won't tolerate this anymore it's more than I can take wake me before the sun comes out and everything's alright

The sun comes out
and everything's alright

And I'll take what I can get and just don't leave me the scraps, I'm worth more I'm worth more than that but wake me before the sun comes out
and everything's alright

and everything's alright
alright, alright, alright

Hold on for one more day
I don't believe in much but for this I'll pray
alright, alright, alright, alright

Hold on for one more day
I don't believe in much
but for this I'll pray

and everything's alright
