

Tiny

The Parlotones

This treasure is ours
But it won't fix
Disappointing times

Swear we have quit
Just need to lick
Hedonistic minds

Light up the stage
Rewrite the script
It's your book for life

There's more to life
Than all of us
And we are all tiny
Like little ants
We'll soon be crushed
And we are all tiny

Frivolous fury
Swallow pills
Mankind's secret crime

Life is gigantic
Will not spill
A single drop this time

Love is contagious
Catch a thrill
Make sure love never dies
