

Spending all the time
Waiting for the idiots
To Surrender to whatever
I seen all the obsession that is
Family value, still you play the fool
Right now the suits and the ties
Seem like they are
Linkin Park and all the Rock Star

They wont they don't want your name
Got no value got no fame

The Tv executive decisions have all
Been defined and written by the rules
Tune in and vote for the winner again
You don't have to nothing else to do
Line up everybody's waiting for you
To say your name and see you play the fool
Right now the suits and ties
Seem like they are
Linkin Park and every Rock Star
