

Come Out Of The Shade

The Perishers

Was it love, or just something that reminded me of Something that felt a lot like, but wasn't love
Just friends, friends then, until the end
You know I still pretend, just friends

Take a step and come out of the shade
I can tell you're no longer afraid
I'm helpless without your warming smile
Take a step and come out in the sun
I can tell it's already begun
I'm helpless without your warming smile

Was it love, I think it was but I'm far from sure
I'd never felt that way before, was it love Just friends, am I a fool to be asking for a fool to wish that we could be more than friends

Take a step and come out of the shade
I can tell you're no longer afraid
I'm helpless without your warming smile
Take a step and come out here in the sun
I can tell it's already begun
I'm helpless without you
Helpless without you
Helpless without your warming smile
Your warming smile
