

I Can Feel

The Pierces

He could be anyone
Just for a night
Small talk and white lights
Big dreams, hey ya
We could be anywhere
Just for the night
Tall mountains high hopes
In your dreams, hey ya

Anywhere, I'll go if you want to
Anywhere at all
Anywhere, let's go if you want to
Anywhere, say now

You can take me home if you want to
You can let me down baby don't look back
I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah
We could be alone if you want to
Lay me down, give me what I like
I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah

And when we first kiss
Fourth of July
Blue eyes and red lips
Red lights, hey ya
I'll be a face
Without a name
If I can be careless
You can do the same

Anywhere, I'll go if you want to
Anywhere at all
Anywhere, let's go if you want to
Anywhere, say now

You can take me home if you want to
You can let me down baby don't look back
I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah
We could be alone if you want to
Lay me down, give me what I like
I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah

And when the light sneaks in the room
You'll know that I'll be leaving soon
Soft to the touch
But hotter than metal, baby
You won't save me

You can take me home if you want to
You can lay me down baby, don't look back
I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah
We could be alone if you want to
Lay me down, give me what I like
I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah

You can take me home if you want to
You can layme down baby don't look back

I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah
We could be alone if you want to
Lay me down, give me what I like
I can feel, I can feel it, ah-ah-ah
