

Stone Feeling

The Pietasters

It's 3 o'clock in the morning
And I've been drinking since 1/2 past noon
All my friends have fallen around me
I've just been ending this mood

I stumble from my apartment
'Cause I've been putting in here for so long
I've been nothing where nothing's all past
And have my body reform

All of my ex-girlfriends hate me
Because I've turned their lives into shame
There's just one love that burns inside me
It leaves me great and insane

Hold onto that stone feeling
For as long as you can
Hold onto that stone feeling
For as long as you can

I got to go get my thing on
Before I dry up and blow away
Sunlight shines through my broken window
I'm burning love in the shade

I always knew I would love you
So I kept trying to come in again
My way of loving you badly holds me
I'll bet that it never ends

I know you're always there for me
You never treated me bad
This is the best kind of feeling to give me
The only love that I have

I know you'll never betray me
Spend time with you every day
All other men said it wasn't meant to be
Won't let them take you away
