

I'm A Liar

The Pigeon Detectives

I can't help thinking of you since you came in to view
But I've tried
All the boys do the same girl
You drive them insane with desire
Just like a bird in my head, it will all go as planned
I'm a liar
I can't help thinking of you since you can't in to view
But I've tried

I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling
I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling

Although I don't know your name
Well, I could love you just the same for tonight
And like a flash in your pannel I will take what I can if that'
s alright
I still don't know how I feel
The words I use are words I steal
I'm a liar
I can't help thinking of you since you came in to view
But I've tried

I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling
I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling

I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling
I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling

I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling
I only came here cos' I hear that you're drinking darling
