

Love You for a Day (Hate You for a Week)

The Pigeon Detectives

I could love you for a day
But then I'd hate you for a week
If there was something you could say
I'd tell you what to speak
To make things go much easier for you and me
I think you know, the time has come
For it to go nowhere

Cos' we just don't get along now
And I'd rather be alone tonight
Than have you're here so we could fight again
Cos' we just don't get along now

I've stopped answering your calls
Because you're getting on my nerves
This is it, once and for all
You'll get what you deserve
And things will go much easier for you and me
I think you know, the time has come
For it to go nowhere

Cos' we just don't get along now
And I'd rather be alone tonight
Than have here so we could fight again
Cos' we just don't get along now

And things will go much easier for you and me
I think you know, the time has come
For it to go nowhere.

Cos' we just don't get along now
And I'd rather be alone tonight
Thean have here so we could fight again
Cos' we just don't get along now
