

Different World

The Pineapple Thief

You crawling for life as someone new
You're calling to a voice to come to you
But its all in your mind, its all in your mind
Its all in your mind

Just because its past its still insane
Its irrelevant to me because I came
To a different world, a different world
A different world

We're happier we don't know what to do
We calling to the voice, the one that's new
We're all in a trance, we're all in a trance
We're all in a trance

Cos you're all in a trance, you're all in a trance
You're all in a...

We're happier we don't know what to do,
We're happier we don't know what to do, to do
We're happier we don't know what to do, to do
We're happier we don't know what to do, to do

Its irrelevant to me, because I came
Its irrelevant to me, because I came
Its irrelevant to me, because I came
Its irrelevant to me, because I came

Its irrelevant to me...
Its irrelevant to me, because I came
To a different world, a different world
To a different world
