

From Me

The Pineapple Thief

This makes no sense,
There's nothing we can work out
This makes no sense to me,
I only know you've torn my heart out

They've taken you away
To be held apart for the dying days
So they've taken you away
So far from me, from me, from me

So far from me

They've taken you away
To be held apart for the dying days
So they've taken you away
So far from me, from me, from me
