Lay On The Tracks

The Pineapple Thief

Words go to sleep, You're flying around my head until I' mad, I cannot keep, Your words, they simply slide away.

This is too late, I cannot write a word Pain is in my head...in my head.

This is a love song about nothing, Because there's nothing in my head, Another love song made for nothing, So can I close my eyes instead.

This is too late, I cannot write a word, Pain's my head, Keeps telling me to go, Go back to sleep, I cannot face the world, Go back to sleep...to sleep...to sleep.

This is too late, I cannot write a word, Pain's my head, Keeps telling me to go, Go back to sleep, I cannot face the world, Go back to sleep...to sleep...to sleep.
