

Little Man

The Pineapple Thief

Little man, you are the brother now,
I'd speak with you, if only I knew how,
Cos little man you are the brother now

There was no warning sign,
The wounds won't heal in time,
There's nowhere we will go,
Without you, you know

In my dreams, you have your mothers smile,
Even though we touched for just a while,
All my life you'll have your mothers smile,

There was no warning sign,
The wounds won't heal in time,
There's nowhere we will go,
Without you, you know

There was no warning sign,
The wounds won't heal in time,
There's nowhere we will go,
Without you, you know
