

Parted Forever

The Pineapple Thief

One fine day,
Shattered by the parting of the two of us.
Fade away,
Into the unknown fate that was made for us.

And I know what it takes to be here.
You'll never make it, without fear.

One fine day,
Shattered by the death of the two of us.
Walk away, into the light where you put your trust.

And I never worshiped the right part of you.
I never wanted, a part of you.
