

Preserve

The Pineapple Thief

What you get, is settling for less than you deserve,
What you get, is an empty burnt out wreck to preserve

Dreaming of a different ending with a meaning,
But then I wake up, wake up

What you get, is never knowing when you can depend, on me,
What you get, is a brightly coloured wreck you can't defend from me,

Here's something, here's someone,
To take instead of you,
What a way to prove that you,
Need someone, need someone,
Half of which is you,
Half of which is you that you don't want to loose

Here's something, here's someone,
To take instead of you,
What a way to prove that you,
Need someone, need someone,
Half of which is you,
Half of which is you that you don't want to loose

Dreaming of a different ending with a meaning,
But then I wake up, wake up

Here's something, here's someone,
To take instead of you,
What a way to prove that you,
Need someone, need someone,
Half of which is you,
Half of which is you that loose
