

What have I done?
What am I doing here?
Can I have some?
But no one else can hear

That you love me,
Can you please read my mind,
I can't help me,
In this never ending time

What have I done?
What am I doing here?
What have I done?
What am I doing here?

In a never ending mind,
I get tired, of mine,
You have never been so kind,
Now you can't be mine

What have I been doing here?
Can I have some meaning?
Why can't anybody hear?
My mind screaming

Come and help me
