The Pineapple Thief

What have I done? What am I doing here? Can I have some? But no one else can hear

That you love me, Can you please read my mind, I can't help me, In this never ending time

What have I done? What am I doing here? What have I done? What am I doing here?

In a never ending mind, I get tired, of mine, You have never been so kind, Now you can't be mine

What have I been doing here? Can I have some meaning? Why can't anybody hear? My mind screaming

Come and help me
