I wanna say how much I need just a break, a little break I wanna say how much I need just a taste, a little taste

I wanna go away and try just to waste a little time I wanna go away and find a place for you and I

so we row and row (x6)

I start a song from beating you to the ground, to the ground
I find a laugh when no one makes a sound not a single sound

so we row and row (x6)

and we row
to the edge of the world

so we row and row
