

Watch The World (turn Grey)

The Pineapple Thief

You watch the world turn grey with you,
You let it get away,
And once the world belonged to you,
They've taken it away

I won't leave you here,
I won't leave you here,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you

Don't let the sun go down on you,
There is another way,
So yesterday belonged today,
You have another day

I won't leave you here,
I won't leave you here,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you

I won't leave you here,
I won't leave you here,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you,
I won't lose you
