Chicago Overcoat

The Pink Spiders

Innocent victim filled up with pills Or so it would seem to the rumbler scene Her getaway sticks made contact with bricks caught skating arou nd Now it's the big sleep But don't you see that you do it to yourself? Cause I can taste that you've been with someone else That's when they told me to run "your fingerprints are on that qun And your shirt is soaked with blood that isn't yours Run your fingerprints are on that gun and revenge is only fun w hen you get away" Filled her with daylight heat fought the good fight if I get co pped it's electric cure Gotta throw lead and leave them for dead if figured then we'll do the dance for sure Grab a little air hammer and saws are giving me a scare Run for your money everybody's there and they've got a curse on me They don't understand they got no kick a simple reprimand won't do the trick Chilled off the broad and facing lead poisoning I guess revenge is always fun Revenge is the most fun when you get away
