

Modern Swinger

The Pink Spiders

She's out of luck, and out of hope and out of cigarettes.
Misunderstood with naked pictures on the internet Her social deviance is teasing me, I know what I want
AND I'M REALLY GONNA REALLY LET HER KNOW THAT I LIKE HER
BUT I JUST DON'T CARE ENOUGH TO FOOL AROUND WITH LOVE

Yeah my baby's pretty as a car crash
Sexy as the stinger of a hornet in your arm
just another modern swinger screaming "catch me if you can"
with a cigarette in hand and it's love its heavy and it hurts and its love

Strung out on blow
She doesn't know why she's not feeling good Dropped out of school
Now she's moving out to Hollywood
Her reckless decadance is taking things a little too far
And I'm really gonna really let her know that I like her
But I just don't care enough to fool around with love

Yeah my baby's pretty as a car crash
Subtle as a splinter
Yeah my baby's smooth as sandpaper
Warm just like the winter
screaming "catch me if you can"
with a cigarette in hand and it's love
its heavy and it hurts and its love

Staring at my shoes thinking of something to say But nothing's better than what silence is saying When every time I turn around she's always looking away It's just the nature of the game that we're playing

And I think I'm tapping out
I think I'm gonna skip the title bout

Yeah my baby's pretty as a car crash
Sexy as the stinger of a hornet in your arm
just another modern swinger
screaming "catch me if you can"
with a cigarette in hand and it's love
its heavy and it hurts and its love

And shes pretty as a car crash
Subtle as a splinter
Yeah my baby's smooth as sandpaper
Warm just like the winter
screaming "catch me if you can"
with a cigarette in hand and it's love
its heavy and it hurts and its love

And she's pretty as a car crash
Sexy as the stinger of a hornet in your arm
just another modern swinger
screaming "catch me if you can"

with a cigarette in hand and it's love
its heavy and it hurts and its love
