The Planet Smashers

Crash through the lobby, don't know where to go
Dates not here it's a quarter to ten, time to start jumpin'
You know life's not easy, but it's the only way to be Maxin' out the cards at every bar the bouncers are after me

Wo-oh hey hey I'm gonna rise up to the occasion

Life of the party hey,

Partys on high wanna go all night
Never want the evening to end
Living after midnight is the only way for me
Can't sit tight gonna party all night
Everybody's watching me
