

Unstoppable

The Planet Smashers

I have no alibi
i have no need for one
I'll fess to what I've done
Even if you thing it's wrong

Truth don't come easily
It will not be denied
You don't have to believe
'cause I know what'll make things right

Are you waiting?
The World, it falls apart
They are unstoppable?

Solutions visible
Easy for all to see
Yet ideals are twisted
For profitability

Change won't come overnight
For this pledge to fight
We all have been deceived
This is our reality

Are you waiting?
The world, it falls apart
They are unstoppable?
Are you ready to do all that you can?
And stop the unstoppable

I have no alibi
Truth don't come easily
It will not be denied
You don't have to believe
'cause I know what'll make things right
That's right

Are you ready to do all that you can?
They are unstoppable?
Are you ready to do all that you can?
And stop the unstoppable
I have no alibi
