

I Love You a Thousand Times

The Platters

Remember love notes, the teacher found in school
The whole class laughing, gee I felt just like a fool

But here comes a very funny, funny line
I had to write 1 thousand times

That I love you, I love you
I love you, I love you
Girl, I love you 1 thousand times

The love notes I treasured, loving you was not a sin
Punishment was pleasure, whoo I'd do it all over again

I wrote, and I wrote, till my fingers got sore,
But I had to write just a little bit more

Did you read my letters, it's been on my mind?
All that it said was girl I love you one thousand times

From then until this very same day,
I still feel that same old way
'Cause I love you, I love you
1 thousand times
