

After You

The Pointer Sisters

I found a letter to her
I guess you're thinking of leaving
But if your love hasn't died
If there's a spark to revive...

Think about it before you leave
Don't make a hasty decision
There's so much we stand to lose
And honey I can't envision

After you
there's no one
After you
I'm all but through
Tell me, baby, how will I survive?
How will I stand the lonely days and nights
after you?

Don't be a stranger to me
Just tell me what we are missing
Something's still keeping you here
You're torn in two, but to me it's so clear

Is there something I have done wrong?
Tell me, boy, don't just move on

After you
I'm all but through
Listen, baby, just walk in my shoes (walk)
Feel my heart breaking in two

[Chorus]
