

Where Have You Been?

The Pointer Sisters

Where have you been?
And what are you looking for?
Tell me, old friend:
When you turn out the light,
close your eyes for the night,
does your mind go astray,
are you running away from yourself?
Don't be afraid to ask for help

We shared so much together
Our dreams went on forever
Living like the day would never end
Then came the stormy weather
Our lives were torn and shattered
We were forced to stop and start again

It's never easy to face the fact that you have made a mistake and yet Isn't it time that you found the purpose of living that brings peace of mind?

And where have you been?
(Where have you been? You've been away so long)
And what are you looking for?
(What are you looking for way out there on your own)
Tell me, old friend:
(Where have you been? You've been away so long)
When you turn out the light,
close your eyes for the night,
does your mind go astray,
are you running away from yourself?
Don't be afraid to ask for help

If we were merely strangers oblivious to dangers that living in the shadows can lead you to I wouldn't speak so freely but in your eyes, I see me
The lesson that life has taught me
I give to you

What you give out will come back to you Isn't it time that you faced the truth?
Stop holding so much inside
Admit to yourself that you're not satisfied

Where have you been?
When you're not strong, I'll be your shoulder

When I was cold
When I was tired
I didn't know if anybody cared
But you see, I had to turn around and look at myself
Nobody else understood me
But I made it through and you can too

I've been missing you, old friend
I've been missing you, old friend
