

Cuts Like A Knife

The Poodles

Every step she takes
And all the moves she makes
You are right behind
With a bleeding heart

Time again I tell you she gone for good
But still you wait

Cuts like a knife but you don't mind the pain
You pray for your life and slowly go insane
The S.O.S you're sending no one seems to hear
Cuts like a knife but you enjoy the pain

You're locked outside the door
You're pride's been bought and sold
You think she's what you need
But still you bleed

Cuts like a knife but you don't mind the pain
You pray for your life and slowly go insane
The S.O.S you're sending no one seems to hear
Cuts like a knife but you enjoy the pain

Calling in an emergency now...

Cuts like a knife but you don't mind the pain
You pray for your life and slowly go insane
The S.O.S you're sending no one seems to hear
Cuts like a knife but you enjoy the pain
