

In the ambience rising
Where I go no man can follow
Left behind all safety
My belongings, my wife and family

Floating free into higher spaces
Like a genie I go

Godspeed carry me home again
Leaping from the sky
Wish me Godspeed unburden the fear and pain
And my mission to fulfill in this moment of truth
I pray for Godspeed

On the edge of the horizon
I defy all the laws of gravity
It's not all a competition
Serenity fills the space between us

Capsule of life were there's no existence
On the threshold to space

Godspeed carry me home again
Leaping from the sky
Wish me Godspeed unburden the fear and pain
And my mission to fulfill in this moment of truth
I pray for Godspeed
