

Heaven's Closing In

The Poodles

Heaven's closing in
to save the world of chaos
Right here and now begins
the end of million sorrows Everything starts with a thought that is free to deliver All great inventions are first just a vision, a dream All great expeditions and journeys ever made started with a simple step If nothing is impossible why should i refuse my call?
Heaven's closing in
to save the world of chaos
Right here and now begins
the end of million sorrows
Angels sing - Heavens closing in We landed the moon and we go to the deep of the oceans
There is no mountain that hasn't been conquered today We have resource an knowledge to end the poverty to make this world a better place If everything is possible why should i refuse ma call?
Heaven's closing in
Angels sing - Heavens closing in I don't know what lies beyond these mountains and these dusty roads But with an open heart i'm sure that i will find all what i'm looking for Heaven's closing in
