

Misery Loves Company

The Poodles

Buckle up baby, give me that smile
I'm taking you out of here
From this desolation boulevard
And from the pain and fear

The godless crowd that runs these blocks
Would kill you for a cigarette
The ugly-fication of this world is giving me a cold sweat

So hang on, we'll be gone by the break of day
You and I, will survive when the sky is falling

Call me a dreaming fool but I know I'm not alone
I've got to live while I'm alive
Misery loves company
I see the beauty, not a bitter reality
I've got to live while I'm alive
Their misery loves company

The cravings that I had are gone
They fade into a silhouette
All changes start within myself
That's something that I can't neglect

So hang on, we'll be gone by the break of day
You and I, will survive when the sky is falling

Call me a dreaming fool but I know I'm not alone
I've got to live while I'm alive
Misery loves company
I see the beauty, not a bitter reality
I've got to live while I'm alive
Their misery loves company
