

Night of Passion

The Poodles

My heart is screaming out your name
Night falls, my mind recalls the sound of your heart breathing
Thoughts of your thousand kisses burning on my skin
I feel your desire as the moonlight lingers in the sky
I'm walking through fire, can't you hear me when I cry
One night of passion, one night of hunger
And my attraction is getting stronger
I need to feel you, I need to hold you
I can't deny 'cause my heart is screaming out your name
My heart is screaming out your name
Tonight I won't be alone, doesn't mean that I'm not lonely
One minute is like an hour until you calm my pain
I feel your desire as the moonlight lingers in the sky
I walking through fire, can't you hear me when I cry
One night of passion, one night of hunger
And my attraction is getting stronger
I need to feel you, I need to hold you
I can't deny 'cause my heart is screaming out your name
My heart is screaming out your name
Every time you're not around
You're a thought within my mind
Hold me near, never fear
I'm right beside
One night of passion, one night of hunger
And my attraction is getting stronger
I need to feel you, I need to hold you
I can't deny 'cause my heart is screaming out your name
One night of passion, one night of hunger
And my attraction is getting stronger
I need to feel you, I need to hold you
I can't deny 'cause my heart is screaming out your name
